It is generally taken to mean the door or gate of the "door" (Arabic دار, dar) which is used as a word for an enclosed space, a room, a mansion, a palace, or a fort. Pronunciation The place name is usually pronounced as Darwaza. However, the word also appears in many European languages and its pronunciation is Darza or Darzaza in Arabic, the only exception being the Arabic rendition of the German city of Darmstadt, known as دارمشتاد in Arabic, pronounced as Darwazah.
