We are an online club that meets at the end of every month to share a glass and get in touch with old friends and make new ones. Many members are still overseas and we support each other as we have similar situations. Thanks to our wonderful guest and host, Diane Swinford, this month's topic was a return from the trenches. I don't know what that means, but I suspect that the context is about returning from military service and the trench being a war zone. Diane started off the meeting by sharing a bit about her own life. Her husband (my friend and neighbor) is in the Air Force, which can make for some interesting flying situations, as she shared about the time a tornado was created by a couple of jets flying behind it. She has five children, two with significant disabilities, and you can see a bit of how that has affected her in her life. She

Lighten PDF Converter OCR Review: "A useful tool for scanning and OCRing pdfs. Allows you to save the text from the pdfs you have on your computer. It is very easy to use and has a free trial to help you make sure this is the correct software for you. Thank you Lighten." Stan - 25.10.2017 "Great tool for those who don't have time to go through various trial and error methods. Works flawlessly, conversion is the same as the original format. As the interface is extremely simple, it's possible to get lost, but not difficult to find anything. No registration required (as I expected, from a free trial). It can be used as a standalone solution and as a part of a larger suite of tools." Zvezdan - 16.10.2017 "A nice and
