Ultimately, I feel like Case and a few similar cases could have been designed to use that same and I'd still be happy with it. But there is every reason to believe that from this point on, another firm will have a charging case designed for a more universal standard. If we see another firm make a case that is easy to swap in and out of, with a car charger that works as good if you want a phone that charges on a boat, then they will be the ones paying for what was the experience of others. It's that simple. Cases still get used though. Apple continues to insist that there are no iPhone batteries. I'm not sure if it's an implication of the design of the

What's new:

Quest Board Game This brand new game is kind of a cross between Clue, Fables and Clans. You have a board of rooms randomly set up from an incredible list of locations in the lands of Avalon. There are quite a few likely gerrymandered alliances on the table, be certain, and things are going to get quite dicey at the end of a match! I have no way to distribute copies and I know that many of my backers won't be able to enjoy this game, so I'm building a communal card collection into the final game box for this set. As I play the game, I will be providing a progress video review for those who have not yet pledged. NO PAYMENT RECEIVED, we will be issuing a full refund once game is released and the methods outlined on our Kickstarter page have been removed. Game Settings 3-4 PLAYERS Level: Easy Time: 45 Min - 30+ hours (including play, piece-by-piece sequencing, and scoring/folding) Play Area: 8 feet by 8 feet Game pieces: 4 Age of Dragons dice Set up terrain: Template Setup Length: Begin with cloister, central shrine, fair and barnyard (minor variations of above) Game pieces: 20 + 1 random location piece Recommended Level: 8+ Contents: 1 set of play mats, 6 player mats, 1 knock-down cardboard playing board (a separate backer option), 100+ cards plus 1 per player for loose-in-hand scoring More information Coming Soon ALSO - AS A SPECIAL BONUS FOR BONUSERS: 15 Celtic Belt of Iron Due to very limited production of such unique and beautiful metalwork, this particular belt is a bit hard to find. This situation all began when I profited myself from a special offer that Ben Abramson made to me when we were doing the Kickstarter. He offered to send a special Celtic Belt of Iron gift wrapped from me to one of his fans for free. That bargain turned out to be incredibly popular and it's caused quite a bit of presale demand for this unique piece. I will have none of that! Instead, I have added it to this component set at no additional cost to you, the player... for a limited time only. 6... 1... 2... 3
