Ponchoman is a top-down, roguelike game with pixel art graphics. Ponchoman has only four weapons: a knife, a pipe, a club, and a revolver. There is only one main world, consisting only of the graveyard. The purpose of the game is to kill the monsters repeatedly spawned in this world. Remember, your record is not showing how many creatures have you killed, but how many monsters you killed. If you die with weapon, everything including weapon will be reset. The current version of the game only supports 12 world.
