Any solution? Best regards. A: You need to have a loop. This is a simple form in VB.NET. Dim fso As New System.IO.FileInfo("path/to/file") For i As Integer = 1 To 9 If fso.Exists Then Dim q1 As String = "SELECT id FROM table WHERE intField = " & CStr(i) Dim cnn As New MySqlConnection Dim cmd As New MySqlCommand cnn.ConnectionString = "connect to server" cmd.Connection = cnn cnn.Open() Dim reader As MySqlDataReader cmd.CommandText = q1 reader = cmd.ExecuteReader If reader.HasRows Then reader.Read() cmd.CommandText = "UPDATE table SET id = " & CStr(i) & " WHERE id = " & CStr(i - 1) cmd.ExecuteNonQuery() End If cnn.Close() End If 'you might need to add some sort of security in here to prevent 'updating the ID by someone brute forcing the query Next For more information on the SQL injection problem, see this question. Today, it's the turn of the Arizona Cardinals to make a move. They've reportedly reached out to both the Cleveland Browns and Detroit Lions to see if they are interested in trading up to pick up one of those 2nd round picks. What might they be looking for? Both 2nd round picks would be valuable, and the Lions pick is a higher value than the Browns second-round pick, which would allow the Cardinals to potentially use their top pick for a top quarterback prospect, or move back into that spot if need be. How could the

'> A: In your controller file, add: class AlbumsController 20 end def show @albums = Album.find(params[:id]) end ... Then, in the view, use: Polyurethane microspheres loaded with curcumin for inhibiting cancer cell growth. Bioactive polyurethane microspheres were fabricated via a single-stage emulsion polymerization, and then applied as a drug delivery system. The microspheres showed favorable encapsulation of curcumin, sustained drug release, and significantly inhibited the growth of HeLa cells. The encapsulation efficiency of the microspheres was as high as 90% for curcumin. The characteristic of the microspheres was characterized by XRD, FT-IR, TGA, TEM, and DSC techniques. The quantitative structure-property relationship (QSPR) study showed that the microspheres size was significantly correlated with the partition coefficient, the composition and functional groups of polyurethane, the softness of the polyurethane, and the drug-polymer interaction of the microspheres, respectively. This study suggests the potential application of polyurethane as a drug delivery system for controlled release of hydrophobic drugs."Somar Barreto, o jornalista que participou de uma série de debates sobre o impeachment de Dilma Rousseff, admitiu hoje que, com a leitura, não seria possível entender as razões que levaram ao impeachment da presidenta da República. "Eu não leio, porque não consigo entender. Já não existe esse tipo de texto", disse Barreto ao apresentador Fábio Guimaraes. "É um texto que não faz sentido".
