It does not create a PPKpassword for connecting to the GPS, also the connection will fail to continue to send / receive data, even after you re-enter a PPKpassword and start a new session. It tried 3 different download links. Finally I got the cracked version and it worked fine. I used 2 different installations (all failed to open with message: The application failed to start because the application configuration is incorrect.) I do recommend you use an uncracked version of the image based on the official Garmin website for Garmin GPS. You can download the file GIBET-2002.exe from the resulting file to be used.
