The program's complimentary firewall shows all of your network actions therefore that you may readily view exactly what your pc has been doing. GlassWire Elite 2.1.140 With Crack Bandwidth monitors all firewall controls and any traffic that is generated from the computer. Monroe's got enough to do at home this winter with the opening of their annual Thanks for the Party Day. Advertisement On Thursday, the township will host a free party with food and fun for everyone. The festivities start with the Taste of Monroe from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Monroe Senior Center and stretch to the ballpark for the Monroe Tigers vs. Port Jervis Crawlers baseball game. "We're really excited for it," said Monroe Mayor Alex Scicluna. "Our seniors are the reason it's great for our community. They are a big part of what we are. They have a lot of fun, and we want to give them a chance to do that." The Monroe Senior Center, 92 High Street, is hosting the Taste of Monroe, as well as the Monroe Tigers vs. Port Jervis Crawlers baseball game on Monroe field. Taste of Monroe is open to the public, all ages, and will feature unique foods including Asian, Mexican and pizza. "In addition to the food, it's the entertainment," Scicluna said. "There will be different music acts doing kids and adults a couple dances and balloon artists. We want to give Monroe's seniors the chance to dress up, have fun and socialize." "It's basically a social evening," said Marilyn Wilson, who has volunteered at the Monroe Senior Center for the last 20 years. "I think it's wonderful. It's one big family in town." Advertisement The Taste of Monroe is a fundraiser for the Senior Center, with proceeds benefitting the center's cooking program. In addition to the food, the center is providing attendees with entertainment by groups including a buskers, balloon artist and pierogi eating contest. Tickets for the baseball game are free. Monroe is hosting the Crawlers as part of a 10-team tournament with teams from St. Lawrence, Olean, Johnstown, Almond, Newfield, Ellicottville and one team from Florida. About the car show The Car Show is coming to the Monroe Fairgrounds, 2301 West Highway 18R 6d1f23a050
